

ANSWERS

THE CALL OF THE WILD

NOW AVAILABLE ON DIGITAL

ANIMAL TRACKS

Draw a line from the animal to its tracks.

The image shows a matching exercise with seven animal illustrations on the left and seven rows of tracks on the right. Red lines connect each animal to its corresponding track pattern:

- Dog (top) is connected to the first row of tracks (paw prints).
- Wolf is connected to the second row of tracks (two parallel lines).
- Raccoon is connected to the third row of tracks (small paw prints with a central dot).
- Bear is connected to the fourth row of tracks (large paw prints with a central dot).
- Deer is connected to the fifth row of tracks (hoof prints).
- Squirrel is connected to the sixth row of tracks (small paw prints with a central dot).
- Rabbit (bottom) is connected to the seventh row of tracks (paw prints with a central dot).